Creating a checkout form that does not request data alr...

Author:
Nanacast

Created On: 31 Mar 2010 12:14 PM

This can be easily accomplished through the "Create Button" feature.

You create a button and the system will give you a snippet of HTML code you can put on your website. Â This will collect the preliminary info. Then when the customer clicks to buy, they are directed to the secure order page, where they can complete the info with credit card, etc...