

Clients with rogers.com email being rejected

Author:
Nanacast

Created On: 22 Jun 2010 12:07 PM

Rogers.com is on our permanent blacklist. Rogers may be a big ISP, but they are not a very good email service provider and block many legitimate emails from getting through.Â They have outright refused to white list us, so the only option we were left with was to blacklist them.

Instruct your clients to use a different email address. They can create one for free at gmail.com if needed.